WORLD FUEL SERVICES CORPORATION SIGNS FUEL MANAGEMENT
CONTRACT WITH AMERICA WEST AIRLINES

MIAMI, FL (December 1, 2003) ... World Fuel Services Corporation (NYSE:INT), a global leader in the marketing and financing of marine and aviation fuel products and related services, announced today that their fuel management division has been awarded the system-wide fuel procurement/management contract for America West Airlines, Inc. The Tempe, AZ-headquartered airline purchases approximately 450 million gallons of fuel annually in over 62 domestic and international locations. Fuel expense accounts for approximately 18 percent of the airline's total annual operating costs. The program is expected to be fully operational by the end of the airline's first quarter 2004.

"America West is committed to providing the best in airline travel while building shareholder value, and we believe both of these objectives can be met through reliability and cost efficiency," said America West Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer Derek Kerr. "To achieve those goals, it is critical that we select a business partner who not only understands our particular fuel requirements, but is committed to providing cost effective and reliable management of this critical area of our business."

"As we continue to expand our global fuel management program we are very pleased to have the opportunity to serve America West as a customer," said Paul H. Stebbins, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of World Fuel Services Corporation. "America West has successfully transformed their business model and emerged as one of the country's premier low-cost airlines. We share their commitment to customer service and are excited about the opportunity to use our specialized expertise in the area of fuel procurement to reduce costs, realize process efficiencies and add value."
