Item 4.02. Non-Reliance on Previously Issued Financial Statements or a Related Audit Report or Completed Interim Review.

- (a) On April 27, 2005, the executive officers of World Fuel Services Corporation (the "Company") authorized to take such action concluded that the presentation of borrowings and repayments under the Company's revolving credit facility contained in the Company's consolidated statements of cash flows needed to be corrected to reflect such borrowings and repayments on a gross basis rather than net basis. As a result, the Company's consolidated financial statements for the years ended December 31, 2004, 2003 and 2002 and the nine months ended December 31, 2002 included in the Company's Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2004 are being restated and should no longer be relied upon. In addition, the consolidated financial statements included in the Company's Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q for all periods of 2004 and 2003 are being restated and should no longer be relied upon. The decision to restate was made by the executive officers of the Company authorized to take such action following consultation with the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors. The decision to restate, and the underlying reasons for the restatement, were discussed with the Company's independent registered public accounting firm. The Company will restate its consolidated financial statements for the years ended December 31, 2004, 2003 and 2002 and the nine months ended December 31, 2002, including interim financial information for 2004 and 2003, in an amendment to the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2004. The consolidated financial statements included in the Company's Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q for 2004 and 2003 will be restated in amendments to the Company's Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q for the periods ended March 31, 2004, June 30, 2004 and September 30, 2004.

Management had previously concluded that as of December 31, 2004 the Company did not maintain effective internal control over financial reporting because the Company 1) was recognizing revenue and cost of sales when supporting documentation relating to fuel deliveries and related services had been received from third parties utilized by the Company to provide fuel and related services rather than at the time fuel deliveries were made and related services were performed as required by generally accepted accounting principles and 2) did not maintain effective controls to ensure the accuracy and presentation and disclosure of inventory derivative instruments. Furthermore, management has concluded that as of December 31, 2004 the Company did not maintain effective controls over the presentation of borrowings and repayments under the Company's revolving credit facility in the statement of cash flows. This control deficiency will result in the restatement of previously issued financial statements. Management has concluded that this control deficiency constitutes a material weakness. A material weakness is a control deficiency, or combination of control deficiencies, that results in more than a remote likelihood that a material misstatement of the annual or interim financial statements will not be prevented or detected. Management's report on internal control over financial reporting as of December 31, 2004 is being restated to reflect inclusion of this additional material weakness. Accordingly, management's report on internal control over financial reporting as of December 31, 2004 should no longer be relied upon. The decision to restate Management's report, and the underlying reasons for the restatement, were also discussed with the Company's independent registered public accounting firm.

Also, the report of the Company's independent registered public accounting firm is expected to continue to express an adverse opinion with respect to the effectiveness of the Company's internal control over financial reporting as of December 31, 2004. However, the report is expected to be modified to reflect inclusion of the additional material weakness.

WORLD FUEL SERVICES CORPORATION ANNOUNCES MATERIAL WEAKNESS IN INTERNAL CONTROLS AND RESTATEMENT OF ITS FINANCIAL STATEMENTS DUE TO A CORRECTION IN THE PRESENTATION OF BORROWINGS AND REPAYMENTS UNDER ITS REVOLVING CREDIT FACILITY.

FIRST QUARTER 2005 EARNINGS CONFERENCE CALL SCHEDULED FOR TUESDAY, MAY 3rd AT 11:00AM ET

MIAMI, FLORIDA, May 2, 2005 —

World Fuel Services Corporation (NYSE: INT) today announced that its management has determined that the presentation of borrowings and repayments under the Company's revolving credit facility contained in the Company's consolidated statements of cash flows must be revised to reflect such borrowings and repayments on a gross basis rather than net basis. As a result, the Company will be restating its consolidated financial statements for the years ended December 31, 2004, 2003 and 2002 and the nine months ended December 31, 2002 included in the Company's Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2004. In addition, the consolidated interim financial statements included in the Company's Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q for 2004 and 2003 will be restated. The restatement will have no impact on the Company's previously reported net income or on net cash from operating activities, investing activities and financing activities.

The following table sets forth the impact of the restatement on amounts previously reported in the Company's consolidated financial statements for the years ended December 31, 2004, 2003 and 2002 and the nine months ended December 31, 2002 (in thousands):

	For the Year ended December 31,			For the Nine Months Ended December 31, 2002
	2004	2003	2002
			(Unaudited)
Borrowings under revolving credit facility, as restated	$ 285,000	$ 32,000	$ 10,000	$ 10,000
Repayments under revolving credit facility, as restated	(235,000)	(32,000)	(10,000)	(10,000)
Net borrowings under revolving credit facility, as previously reported	$ 50,000	$ —	$ —	$ —

The following table sets forth the impact of the restatement on amounts previously reported in the Company's consolidated financial statements for the three months ended March 31, 2004 and 2003, the six months ended June 30, 2004 and 2003, and the nine months ended September 30, 2004 and 2003 (in thousands):

	For the Three Months ended March 31,		For the Six Months ended June 30,		For the Nine Months ended September 30,
	2004	2003	2004	2003	2004	2003
	(Unaudited)	(Unaudited)	(Unaudited)	(Unaudited)	(Unaudited)	(Unaudited)
Borrowings under revolving credit facility, as restated	$ 10,000	$ 16,000	$ 90,000	$ 22,000	$ 160,000	$ 27,000
Repayments under revolving credit facility, as restated	(10,000)	—	(40,000)	(17,000)	(125,000)	(22,000)
Net borrowings under revolving credit facility, as previously reported	$ —	$ 16,000	$ 50,000	$ 5,000	$ 35,000	$ 5,000

Management had previously concluded that as of December 31, 2004 the Company did not maintain effective internal control over financial reporting because the Company 1) was recognizing revenue and cost of sales when supporting documentation relating to fuel deliveries and related services had been received from third parties utilized by the Company to provide fuel and related services rather than at the time fuel deliveries were made and related services were performed as required by generally accepted accounting principles and 2) did not maintain effective controls to ensure the accuracy and presentation and disclosure of inventory derivative instruments. Furthermore, management has concluded that as of December 31, 2004 the Company did not maintain effective controls over the presentation of borrowings and repayments under the Company's revolving credit facility in the statement of cash flows. This control deficiency will result in the restatement of previously issued financial statements. Management has concluded that this control deficiency constitutes a material weakness. A material weakness is a control deficiency, or combination of control deficiencies, that results in more than a remote likelihood that a material misstatement of the annual or interim financial statements will not be prevented or detected. Management's report on internal control over financial reporting as of December 31, 2004 is being restated to reflect inclusion of this additional material weakness. Accordingly, management's report on internal control over financial reporting as of December 31, 2004 should no longer be relied upon.

Also, the report of the Company's independent registered public accounting firm is expected to continue to express an adverse opinion with respect to the effectiveness of the Company's internal control over financial reporting as of December 31, 2004. However, the report is expected to be modified to reflect inclusion of the additional material weakness.
