Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On June 30, 2011, World Fuel Services Corporation ("World Fuel") entered into the First Amendment (the "Amendment") to its existing receivables purchase agreement dated as of March 31, 2011 (the "Original Agreement", as amended by the Amendment, the "Agreement") among World Fuel Services, Inc., World Fuel Services Europe, Ltd., and World Fuel Services (Singapore) Pte Ltd, each a subsidiary of World Fuel, as sellers, World Fuel and Wells Fargo Bank, National Association ("Wells").

The Original Agreement allowed the sellers to offer for sale up to $50.0 million of certain of their accounts receivable. The Amendment increased the size of this receivables program from $50.0 million to up to $100.0 million and added World Fuel Services Trading DMCC, a subsidiary of World Fuel, as an additional seller under the Agreement. Wells may in its sole discretion decline offers to purchase receivables from the sellers.

Under the Agreement, the sale price for the accounts receivable will be at an amount equal to 90% (and for certain receivables 100%) of the sold accounts receivable balance less a discount margin equivalent to a floating market rate plus 2% and certain other fees, as applicable. Under the Agreement, the sellers retain a 10% beneficial interest in certain of the sold accounts receivable.

The sellers have been appointed by Wells as its servicer to service and administer the sold accounts receivable.

The Agreement terminates upon the earliest of (i) April 1, 2012, unless the term is extended for subsequent one-year terms at the option of the sellers, (ii) the occurrence of a termination event, and (iii) 60 days' prior written notice of termination given by the sellers or Wells. The Agreement contains customary termination events, including, among other things, the failure to make timely payments or deposits under the Agreement or the breach of covenants, representations or warranties under the Agreement. The sellers may also be required to repurchase sold accounts receivable if certain customary repurchase events occur. The obligations of the sellers under the Agreement are guaranteed by World Fuel.

Wells and its affiliates have, from time to time, performed, and may in the future perform, various financial advisory, commercial banking and investment banking services for World Fuel, for which they received or will receive customary fees, expenses and indemnities.

Item 2.03. Creation of a Direct Financial Obligation or an Obligation under an Off-Balance Sheet Arrangement of a Registrant.

The information set forth above in Item 1.01 of this Form 8-K is incorporated herein by reference.
